

ONE DAY HONG KONG FOODIE

AGENDA

1. Introduction
2. Data Acquisition
3. Methodology
4. Results and Discussion
5. Conclusion

INTRODUCTION

- What will you think of when you heard the word ‘food in Hong Kong’?

Dim sum?

Fishball?

- In order to try the traditional food in Hong Kong and explore the Chinese culture, a one day eating route in Hong Kong will be provided.

DATA ACQUISITION

- Data needed: restaurant name, the ratings, and locations
- These data will be acquired through Foursquare.com

Data to be collected	Reasons
Restaurant name	Identify the type of cuisine that the restaurant is going to provide
Restaurant ratings	Classify the level of recommendation <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• ratings between 8.0 – 10: strongly recommended</li><li>• ratings between 6.0 - 7.9: moderately recommended</li><li>• ratings lower than 6.0: not suggest to tourists</li></ul>
Restaurant location	Plan the route <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Only restaurants located in Causeway Bay and Central will be analysed to shorten the travelling time.</li></ul>

METHODOLOGY

- 3 meals are going to recommended to tourists
- Breakfast: People in Hong Kong love having dim sum as their breakfast, so a tea house would be suggested
- Lunch: Fishball is a famous local food in Hong Kong, so the highest ratings fishball restaurant will be recommended
- Dinner: Most of the tourists enjoy watching the views of Victoria Harbour and the skyscrapers, so a rooftop bar along the harbour would be recommended
